THE COAST

Associated Press by Federal Wireless SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 26 .-C. C. Crowley, formerly an investigator for the district attorney's office here, was today taken into custody. It is charged that he is involved in carefully-laid plots to blow up with dynamite and set on fire munition plants and ships on the Pacific coast. Crowley is believed to be connected with Robert Fay, who, after his arrest in New York, confessed that he was a German army lieutenant and that he was working on a device to blow up ships.

[Associated Pless Service by Federal Wireless] WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 26 .- President Wilson has let it be known clearly that he will not participate in the peace campaign outlined by Henry Ford, the auto manufacturer. The president, it is learned, has heard nothing from Europe to cause him to believe the time is opportune for the Ford "peace ship" to take a delegation of pacifists to Europe. Nor will the peace ship carry a representative of the federal government if it sails. The president's mail is being flooded with letters and telegrams urging him to support the movement. He will watch developments:

New Jersey Governor Won't Go

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless] TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 26 .- The governor of New Jersey has declined an invitation from Henry Ford to go to Europe on the liner which Ford is chartering for a peace demonstration. His reason for declining is said to be that he believes the peace efforts as proposed will be considered meddlesome.

Arizona Executive Is "Too Busy"

China's Course Rests with Japan

PEKING, China, Nov. 26.—The proposals of the leading Entente powers, Britain, France and Russia, that China should join the Allied group is being favored by the newspapers here. Should Japan second the movement, and extend the invitation also, China could not refuse the alliance. The Japanese minister here refused to discuss whether or not Japan will urge that China adopt this course.

Allies Sink Cruiser In Baltic

LONDON, England, Nov. 26 .- The Allies have succeeded in sinking by submarine attack the German cruiser Frauenlob off the Swedish coast. The vessel was torpedoed in the same locality where its sister ship, the Undine, was lost recently.

The Frauenlob is a small German cruiser of 2715 tons, 328 feet long, carrying a complement of 264 men and built in 1902.
